IMPACTS

- Mutual better understanding and awareness of the similarities and differences between VET systems and qualification systems across Europe;
- Use of a common language (ECVET principles, technical specifications, processes on the assessment, validation and recognition of learning outcomes);
- Mapping the common units of learning outcomes of a given qualification between different European countries;
- Useful tools to manage (mutually understood);
- Increase quality and transparency in VET;
- Starting to put ECVET in practice.
